DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Applicant is required to update the status (pending, allowed, etc.) of all parent priority applications in the first line of the specification. The status of all citations of US filed applications in the specification should also be updated where appropriate.

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence to all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-2, 5 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Andreou et al. (U.S. 6720830).

Regarding claims 1 and 10, Fig. 5 of Andreou discloses a differential amplifier for amplifying an input differential signal having two components (IN1, IN2) substantially in anti-phase to each other and generating an output differential signal having two differential components (Output 1, Output2), said amplifier comprising a pair of inverters (voltage to current converters, M2 and M3) coupled to a pair of adders (note: the drain node can be read as an adder) the inverters receiving the input differential signal, the amplifier being characterized in that it further comprises a pair of controllable buffers (note: M4 and M5 can be read as a pair of controllable buffers that convert voltage to current) for receiving the input differential signal and outputting a signal to the pair of adders, a bias of the said pair of buffers being cross-controlled by the input differential signal for controlling an amplification of said pair of controllable buffers (see col. 9, lines 47-60), thus meeting claims 1 and 2. In addition, the circuit of Andreou is capable of performing as a receiver as mentioned in col. 1, lines 16, meeting claim 10 as expected.

Regarding claim 5, Andreou discloses everything claimed as applied to claim 2. In addition, the circuit of Andreou is the differential amplifier, wherein the pair of inverters (Fig. 5, M2 and M3) comprises a pair of common emitter coupled transistors, thus meeting claim 5.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-4 and 6-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
